2. who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses also was faithful in all His house.

3. For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as He who built the house has more honor than the house.

4. For every house is built by someone, but He who built all things is God.

5. And Moses indeed was faithful in all His house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which would be spoken afterward,

6. but Christ as a Son over His own house, whose house we are if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.

 14. For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end,

 11. Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience.
 12. For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
 13. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.
 14. Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.
 15. For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin.

Hebrews 12 (13 Verses)

Verses 250-262

1. Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,
 2. Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
 3. For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls.
 4. You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin.
 5. And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons: "My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;
 6. For whom the LORD loves He chastens, And scourges every son whom He receives."
 7. If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom a father does not chasten?
 8. But if you are without chastening, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons.
 9. Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live?
 10. For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, that we may be partakers of His holiness.
 11. Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Note 1 In the early chapters of Hebrews, Jesus is referred to as both "God's Son" and as "God the Son". Pronouns have been defined using the definition most appropriate to that section, however a response of Jesus, Christ (Jesus), "God's Son" OR "God the Son" will also be considered correct. Questions are written as "textually" as possible.

Note 2: The 'He' in Hebrews 3:3 is clearly Christ as the author is contrasting the fact that Christ was given more honor than Moses. However, it is equally clear than in verse 4 it states that God built all things. Since Christ is God, there is no contradiction.

Note 3: Whenever a question requires the answer "that generation of Hebrews" a quizzer will not be ruled wrong if they respond "the Hebrew believers' fathers", however, "that generation of Hebrews" will still be required for the quizzer to be ruled correct. (Applies to Heb 3:10 through Heb 4:11.)

Note 4: Although the house of Judah is no longer mentioned after verse 9 (chapter 8), a quizzer will not be ruled wrong if they also include the house of Judah as part of their answer to questions that come from verses 10-13.

Note 5: In chapter 9, a quizzer will not be ruled wrong if they include the blood of bulls in a verse where the text states calves, or vice versa.
